

PASTORAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

HIS WORD TODAY
Pentecost Sunday

by Rev. William J. Reilly
May 19, 2013

“There are different gifts but the same Spirit; there are different ministries but the same Lord; there are different works, but the same God who accomplishes all of them in everyone. To each person the manifestation of the Spirit is given for the common good.”

Often called the birthday of the church, we celebrate the coming of the Holy Spirit to the Christian community. Assembled in Jerusalem, the disciples were with Mary, perhaps not knowing what to expect. As familiar signs of noise, wind and tongues of fire hit the gathering, a sudden transformation took place. This frightened community was empowered to leave that place and proclaim the good news to others. A new era was launched.

It is the same Spirit reaching to everyone today. The gifts, ministries and works are alive within us as we live the Year of Faith. God wishes to continue ‘accomplishing’ His plan in and through us. We too are empowered and the Lord is waiting, yes waiting patiently, for me to consider His gifts to me, the ministries to be carried out, and the work He needs to complete through my hands.

These have been given for the common good. As I hesitate or refuse to respond His work remains undone. The famous John Henry Newman reminds me that I have been given a task by the Lord and as long as I fail to do it, it always remains undone. May the Spirit of Pentecost come alive in all.

WORLDWIDE ADORATION
OF THE MOST BLESSED
SACRAMENT

The Holy See has announced that “on the Solemnity of Corpus Christi, the Holy Father will preside over a special Eucharistic adoration that will extend at the same time all over the world involving the cathedrals and parishes in each diocese. For an hour, at 5 PM Rome time (11AM on the East Coast), the whole world will be united in prayer and adoration of the Blessed Sacrament”. So on Sunday, June 2nd Exposition and Adoration will begin at the end of the 9:30 Mass and continue until 11:20 AM in the Chapel.

READINGS FOR THIS SUNDAY PENTECOST SUNDAY

First Reading: Acts 2:1-11

The disciples were celebrating Pentecost together when "tongues of fire appeared which parted, then came to rest on each of them." The disciples were filled with the Holy Spirit and began speaking in foreign tongues. Visitors from many different countries were amazed that each guest could hear his or her native language being spoken as the disciples proclaimed God's glory.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 12:3b-7, 12-13

Each person has received different manifestations of the same spirit to contribute to the common good of all. All members of the church have been baptized into one body because of our belief in the Holy Spirit, who was sent to us by God.

Gospel: John 20:19-23

Jesus appeared to the disciples even though they had locked the doors in fear. Jesus then showed the disciples his hands and his side; and they rejoiced at his presence. He breathed on them saying "Receive the Holy Spirit." He then gave the disciples the power to forgive others or hold them accountable for their sins.

Daily Readings for this Week

From the Pastor's Desk Remembering Mother Columba

Mother Columba, formerly of Newtowncashel, Longford, Ireland, entered Religious life in 1939. A request came for the Sisters to staff a Parish/School in Berlin, NJ called Our Lady of Mt. Carmel. A novena was prayed and on Ascension Thursday, 1956, Mother Columba was assigned to Our Lady of Mt. Carmel as principal and Superior of the Convent.

Mother remained at Our Lady of Mt. Carmel until 1964 when she was called back to Trim, Ireland to be part of leadership in her community, the Sisters of Mercy.

Mother continued her involvement in Education, founding a Mercy School for girls in Trim. Mother also was Head of Finance for the order and remained in education most of her career.

Mother Columba is a true pioneer in our Parish, who was instrumental in our children's education. To quote Bea Jackson, part of the first class to graduate from OLMC, "We remember Mother Columba's sparkling eyes, electric smile and gentle demeanor". Mother/Sister Columba died on Ascension Thursday 2013 at the age of 92.

Ag Criost An Siol

(An Irish Hymn)

To Christ the seed, to Christ the crop, in barn of Christ may we be brought.

To Christ the Sea, to Christ the Fish, in the nets of Christ, may we be caught.

From growth to age, from age to death, Thy two arms here, O Christ, about us.

From death to end, not end but growth, in blessed Paradise may we be.
