

PASTORAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

A FRESH PERSPECTIVE ON THE SUNDAY READINGS
HIS WORD TODAY by Rev. William J. Reilly

Tenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
June 9, 2013

“‘O Lord, my God, let the life breath return to the body of this child.’ The Lord heard the prayer of Elijah; the life breath returned to the child’s body and he revived. Taking the child, Elijah brought him down from the upper room and gave him to his mother. ‘See!’ Elijah said to her, ‘your son is alive.’... ‘Now indeed I know that you are a man of God,’ the woman replied to Elijah. ‘The Word of God comes truly from your mouth.’... ‘A great prophet has risen among us,’ they said; and, ‘God has visited his people.’”

The familiar story of the widow of Naim and the miraculous intervention by Elijah are so closely connected. How deeply we are affected when a child suddenly dies in an accident, or after a prolonged illness. Our hearts, filled with compassion, turn to bereaved parents to offer comfort and consolation. Certainly the events of Newtown in December gripped us all.

The Old Testament prophet and Jesus Himself were motivated by the same feelings and addressed the concern of the grieving mother. Life was restored and the witnesses were overwhelmed.

Our respect for life and doing something about it is of no less significance. The late Cardinal Archbishop of Chicago espoused what he called a ‘consistent ethic of life’ for all Catholics which include pro-life, not pro death which is abortion, nuclear war, capital punishment and euthanasia. Catholic social teaching calls us to respect life in all forms, from conception to natural death. May the action of Elijah and the hand of Jesus be our motivating force for children of all ages. His word and work were motivated by compassion and pity.

Thank You

Dear Parishioners,

I want to thank you very personally for accepting the invitation and taking part in the celebration of the 25th anniversary of my priesthood.

Your presence at the Jubilee Mass and the reception thereafter made me feel humbled and honored and I am thankful to God for the gift of priesthood. I would like to acknowledge your love and affection and thank you for being part of my ministry by your encouragement and prayers. I have remembered you and your family in my Thanksgiving Mass and please continue to keep me in your prayers and friendship.

With love and prayers,
Fr. Jose Manjakunnel
(Parochial vicar)

READINGS FOR THIS SUNDAY TENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Chosen

to reveal the Son

First Reading: 1 Kings 17:17-24

The child of the mistress of the house where Elijah sojourned became ill and died. The woman pleaded with Elijah who took the son and prayed over him. When the child revived Elijah returned him to his mother who recognized Elijah as "a man of God."

Second Reading: Galatians 1:11-19

Paul proclaims the gospel, not as human, but coming from the revelation of Jesus Christ. Paul continues to acknowledge his own sinfulness and call to grace.

Gospel: Luke 7:11-17

The gospel continues to recount the miracles and healing powers of Jesus. As Jesus neared the gates to the city of Nain, they came upon a deceased young man who was being carried out of the city. His mother, a widow, and a large crowd accompanying the body, met Jesus on the way. Compassionately, Jesus comforts the weeping mother and restores life to the dead man.

STEWARDSHIP

Stewards Show Compassion

"And when the Lord saw her, was moved with pity for her and said to her, 'Do not weep.'" LUKE 7:13

This verse is a great reminder that the Stewardship lifestyle is one of service, putting God first and to "love one another." Unfortunately today, many people have "passion" for activities they enjoy – their job and off-work activities. Many times our "passion" to excel is at the expense of someone else. We need to focus on less passion for our individual concerns and more compassion for others.

Our Lady of Mt. Carmel Regional School – Art Department

On March 20th students attended the Art 4 Teens Festival. All students 13 and over could submit artwork and spend the day at Rutgers University in Camden, NJ. The students were exposed to viewing their artwork and the art of their peers in a gallery setting. They had their artwork critiqued by artists and I tried to impress upon them that those critiquing their work were being subjective not objective. The OLMC students also had hands on experiences in participating in workshops and watching their classmates and others performing in dance and music. A great and informative day was had by all!

6th through 8th graders were exposed to the lives and works of such artists as Toulouse Lautrec, Grant Wood, Vincent Van Gough, Georges Seurat, Henri Matisse, Pablo Picasso and Vasley Kandinsky. The students created artworks in their likeness and developed an understanding of Realism, Abstract art, Pointillism, Cubism, Fauvism and Expressionism. The results were awe inspiring.

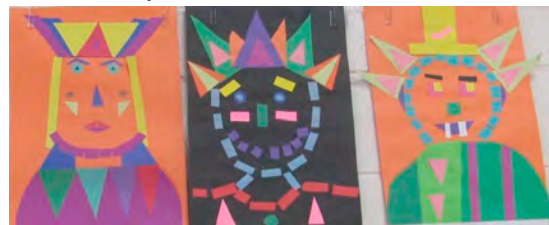

OLMC students experimented with color in various ways. They created Monochromatic paintings (one color plus black or white) and warm or cool pictures. The students all had fun and found the process challenging.

The lower grades (K-5th) used nature as their theme for their artwork. Flowers, fish, turtles, frogs, butterflies, animals and birds were done in crayon and water color adorn the school hallways.

Kindergarten through 2nd also had fun creating a circus environment by making construction paper clowns, water color animals going for a train ride and made animals performing on a platform. The students at OLMC should be proud of themselves this year for producing outstanding artwork. The end of year Art and Music Festival demonstrated how talented our students really are.

7th and 8th grade students conquered an exciting new project this year. I asked them to illustrate and write a children's story about their years at OLMC. Not only was it a learning experience, but the results were amazing! I can't wait for next year; I'm looking forward to creating new and exciting ways to experiment with art.

Congratulations to all our winners and participants!
