

PASTORAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

A FRESH PERSPECTIVE ON THE SUNDAY READINGS
HIS WORD TODAY by Rev. William J. Reilly

Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time
August 18, 2013

“Since we for our part are surrounded by a cloud of witnesses; let us lay aside every encumbrance of sin which clings to us and persevere in running the race which lies ahead; let us keep our eyes fixed on Jesus, who inspires and perfects our faith.” “I have come to light a fire on the earth. How I wish the blaze were ignited.”

A police or ambulance siren, an interruption of a television program or a streamer, always gets our attention. An emergency or announcement summons us to look or listen.

The words of Jesus should shake us as we ask ‘what does He mean?’ Perhaps He sees our world as it is, divided in so many ways, individuals broken, families fragmented. Certainly this is not His plan. What He states is His passion for all of us to set things right.

Hebrews asks us to get rid of whatever keeps us from full union with Jesus. Sin in any of its guises, great or small, is a blemish and obstacle to union with Christ. We ask not to fall into temptation, a fundamental decision on our part. Might we have the same passion as He does for us. How can this happen? Keep our eyes fixed on Jesus; discover His care, His welcoming embrace, His deep desire to abide with us. Remember the apostles on the mount of the Transfiguration? After hearing the Father’s voice, they looked up and saw only Jesus. He looks on us today. Where are our eyes focused today?

MASSES FOR THE WEEK

READINGS FOR THIS SUNDAY TWENTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Jeremiah 38:4-6, 8-10

Jeremiah urged the people of Jerusalem to surrender to the enemy. This angered the princes, who then requested that Jeremiah be put to death. The king allowed the princes to leave him in a cistern without food or water. But after Ebed Melech pleaded for Jeremiah's life, the king decided to free him.

Second Reading: Hebrews 12:1-4

This letter to the Hebrews inspires all Christians to persevere, in spite of the trials they may face. Jesus endured much suffering and was rewarded by God. Despite our struggles, we must remember Jesus' ability to endure and maintain strong faith in him.

Gospel: Luke 12:49-53

Jesus tells his disciples that his message will not bring peace to the earth. Instead, even families will become sharply divided because some members will embrace him, while others condemn him.

Daily Readings for this Week

Monday	Jgs 2:11-19; Mt 19:16-22
Tuesday	Jgs 6:11-24a; Mt 19:23-30
Wednesday	Jgs 9:6-15; Mt 20:1-16

God Is Love

Love always makes a way,
Love closes doors of old...
Love changes the impossible,
Love soothes the wounded soul.
Love always gives –
Love takes all fear away,
Love goes beyond one's feelings,
Love brightens us one's day!
Love brings peace to situations,
Love heals the broken heart,
Love is patient, kind, forgiving –
Love grants a brand new start!
Love makes all things new,
God is love, saying...
"You're My child and I love you!"
