

READINGS FOR THIS SUNDAY TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Amos 8:4-7

The prophet Amos expressed disgust over people who take advantage of the poor. He describes businessmen scheming to cheat the poor, then declares that God will "never forget the things they have done."

Second Reading: 1 Timothy 2:1-8

Paul urges the Christians to pray for all people, especially those in authority. Paul even asked them to pray for the kings who denounced Christ's teachings, because God wants all people to be saved through Jesus.

Gospel: Luke 16:1-13

Jesus tells a story about a servant who tries to cheat his employer. The owner is impressed because he would do the same thing himself. Jesus then describes the importance of being trustworthy in small matters, as well as in greater ones. He then states that no one can serve two masters faithfully, so people cannot give themselves completely to both God and money.

Seasonal Advent Recipes, 100% Guaranteed to be Awesome

ADVENT Season

What's the recipe for peacefulness that we often forget about? Advent! We hurry quickly to Christmas, and almost the next day stores rush to take down decorations and get ready for Valentine's Day! If we let it, Advent can be a time to let go of our grasp on things that distract us from Jesus. Advent reminds us to prepare peacefully for this coming Christmas, but also to prepare for the day of Jesus' second coming!

We are offering two opportunities to chill out and enrich your preparation during this Holy Season....

1st Annual CHRISTMAS CAROL FESTIVAL

Come with family and friends to celebrate Christmas the old fashioned way, singing holy carols that are near and dear to us! Adults and children are invited to bring bells to play along. Also, kindly bring your Baby Jesus from your crèche/manger to be blessed if you wish.

Please bring new scarves, mittens, hats or gloves (children or adult sizes) as a donation.

1st Advent Carol Festival: Sunday, Dec. 8 at 3:00pm in the church.

Advent Chill Out Nights:

“Be Still and Know that I am God: The Extravagance of Being ‘Unbusy’”

These two nights will be presented by Michelle Francl-Donnay, spiritual writer as well as a professor of chemistry. Michelle gives retreats as well as blogs on life, laundry, prayer and God in the midst of being a wife, mom and teacher. She writes regularly for the Philadelphia Archdiocese’s CatholicPhilly.com, and contributes to Give Us This Day, The Liguorian and Loyola Press’ Ignatian Spirituality site.

Michelle’s topic, Be Still and Know that I am God: The Extravagance of Being ‘Unbusy,’ will help us catch our breath with God during our overflowing holiday calendars. Join us for one night or both nights!

2nd Advent Gathering: Monday, Dec. 16 and Tuesday, Dec. 17 at 7:00pm in the church.

Recipes that Never Tasted so Fresh & Different

World Religions Series

You want a recipe that’s fresh and new? Fix yourself up some different faith traditions! Join us in our excursion through the history of the world’s major religions. Since religious beliefs and rituals are an integral part of every culture, it’s inspiring to learn how religions compare, contrast and connect with one another. Through these insights, our faith can deepen and help us understand better the fact that all human beings long for God in one way or another!
