

PASTORAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

A NOTE FROM FR. JIM

OLMC Church Facelift

As you all may know we are planning some well needed facelifts to the church. It has been 21 years since it was completed and it is in need of some major updating. We are currently painting the entire interior. The ceiling was completed a few weeks ago and the walls will be completed in the next few weeks. In late August, the existing carpet will be removed and new carpet will be installed throughout the entire church. The sanctuary area may be delayed since other work will be taking place there as well. Sometime late September or early October all of the pews and seating throughout the church will receive new upholstery and the kneeler pads and covering will be replaced. All pews will be checked and repaired as needed so they will be like new.

Additionally, we are installing two new electric candle racks in the rear of the church. For some time we have been told to remove the wax candles. They are not only a fire hazard but also they have created a major soot problem to the ceiling and their surrounding areas. I trust you all understand the reasoning and will consider the electric candle as a very viable alternative and necessity.

I think you will be well pleased with the new carpet and fabric on the pews and seating. It will certainly give the church a fresh and vibrant look just like it was the day it was dedicated.

Saint Edward Church and Rectory

On July 21st, we closed on the sale of the Saint Edward Church and Rectory buildings. This sale took over 6 months to consummate due to an oil tank that had leaked and we needed to mitigate it. Thanks to a very willing buyer who remained in the deal while we worked through a somewhat tedious and difficult situation we were able to complete this. The parish netted just over $600,000 in this sale. Let's be mindful that since the merger, almost 5 years ago, St. Simon Stock Parish has invested almost all of that money in the Saint Edward Campus just repairing and replacing and mitigating issues within the entire complex. Hopefully soon we will find a purchaser for the school/convent site and our goal of selling this campus will be achieved.

Lastly, Robert Pallante has completed the Prayer Garden by the Holy Family statue. Over a year ago he approached the Pastoral Council with his idea and plan to do this prayer/refection garden. He had to plan, raise the funds and execute this garden as part of his Eagle Scout Community Project. We are very thankful to Robert for doing such a magnificent job on the garden. We will be dedicating this garden to the Sisters of Mercy. The blessing and dedication will take place on November 2, 2014.

As always I want to thank everyone for their generosity to the parish. As you know your contributions go to the necessary maintenance, repairs and improvements of our church. God's House of Worship must always be the priority to our Parish. As the Lord said in the Gospel of Matthew a few weeks ago, "Then every Scribe who has been instructed in the Kingdom of Heaven is like the head of a household who brings from the store room both the new and the old." Let's celebrate our Fifth Anniversary this November with a special meaning that we have accomplished so much in a short period of time.

Sincerely
Fr. Jim

READINGS FOR THIS SUNDAY

TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Jeremiah 20:7-9

In this particularly poetic passage, Jeremiah complains that while teaching the Lord's word, he is subjected to insults and derision. He determines to remain silent, but he cannot because the desire to speak the Lord's name is "like a fire burning in my heart."

Second Reading: Romans 12:1-2

Paul tells the Christians to make sacrifices to avoid the trappings of the times, and to do God's will.

Gospel: Matthew 16:21-27

Jesus tries to make his disciples realize that by following him, they will endure suffering, degradation, and death. He tells them that they must deny themselves and take up the cross in order to be his disciples.

STEWARDSHIP

UPCOMING EVENTS

STEWARDSHIP

Stewards Seek God's Values

"What profit would there be for one to gain the whole world and forfeit his life?" – MATTHEW 16:26

St. Francis of Assisi once said, "Remember, you are what you are in the eyes of God, and nothing else." We often forget this Stewardship wisdom when we spend all of our time, talent and treasure to gain more of the world's riches. We need to set our priorities based on God's values and not the values of the material world.

This is an opportunity to join with our Holy Father, Pope Francis, and be a witness of charity to our suffering brothers and sisters. Please be generous in next week's second collection.
