MISSION CO-OP APPEAL

Our Mission Co-op Collection will be taken up this weekend for the Diocese of Gonaives in Haiti, home to more than one million of the poorest people on earth. Diocesan missionaries work among the poor Catholics in Haiti, at clinics that offer primary health care to mothers and infants, hospices for the dying, Catholic elementary schools and feeding programs.

Joining us this weekend to speak on behalf of the Diocese of Gonaives will be Doug Campbell, Executive Director of Hands Together, an organization inspired by Fr. Tom Hagan, OSFS. The following is an excerpt from the Hands Together website, written by Mr. Campbell:

"In 1986 a handful of students from Lafayette College returned home from a Haiti trip led by Fr. Tom Hagan, OSFS, our Catholic Chaplain. I was one of those students and I never could have guessed that the experience would impact my life so profoundly. Fr. Tom Hagan helped me, and many other young people at Lafayette, see more clearly our responsibility to serve others. He taught us that true joy and real satisfaction come when one gives of himself. Fr. Tom encouraged me and many of my fellow students to "strive to see Jesus in every human face." These simple teachings were the beginning of what would become Hands Together.

Hands Together is first a fellowship of people working to build a better world, and second, a program of interconnected outreach activities designed to help the poorest of the poor. The ministry of Hands Together is best described by Bishop Ken Untener who wrote

We plant the seeds that one day will grow. We water seeds already planted, knowing that they hold future promise. We lay foundations that will need further development. We provide yeast that produces effects far beyond our capabilities. We cannot do everything, and there is liberation in realizing that. This enables us to do something and to do it very well. It may be incomplete, but it is a beginning, a step along the way, an opportunity for the Lord's grace to enter and do the rest. We may never see the end results, but that is the difference between the master builder and the worker. We are workers, not master builders; ministers not messiahs. We are prophets of a future not our own.

We recognize that the results of our work are ultimately in God's hands. This dependence upon God has transformed this small student-based group into a program helping thousands of families in the poorest areas of Haiti. Please continue to pray for us that we may continue to hear the cry of the poor and, through God's grace, help those who are suffering.

We hope that members of Hands Together work passionately to build a more compassionate and human world; that Hands Together's workers will be known for their tenderness and mercy, especially toward the poor; that people will visit our projects and experience the beauty and goodness of the people they encounter; that our volunteers will assess the needs of their own communities with a renewed sense of compassion, and search for ways to respond respectfully to help others; that the families who live in Haiti's desert villages will be healthy, that the people in the slums of Port-au-Prince will drink clean water; that everyone in Haiti will have access to education; that in the poorest communities, Hands Together helps people use their resources so that they become free and live dignified lives; and we hope that the people of Haiti will be able to build a strong community with their friends from Hands Together and exchange ideas in order to improve their quality of life".

There will be a basket in the back of Church for your donation. If you are not prepared to make a donation this weekend, you may bring your donation next weekend in an envelope marked "Haiti" and we will forward your donation. Please give generously to the Mission Co-op Appeal.

READINGS FOR THIS SUNDAY EXALTATION OF THE HOLY CROSS

First Reading: Numbers 21:4b-9

The Jews were complaining against God and Moses of the tiring journey through the desert. The Lord punished them for such complaints with the bite of deadly serpents. After hearing the prayers of Moses for his people, the Lord instructed Moses to cure those who became ill with a bronze serpent mounted to a pole for them to see.

Second Reading: Philippians 2:6-11

In this letter to the Philippians, Paul tells us how Jesus set aside his form of equality to God and took on a humble, human form - obedient even unto death. God the Father greatly exalted Jesus because of this.

Gospel Reading: John 3:13-17

As today's first reading tells us of Moses raising the bronze serpent in the desert for those to be cured, Jesus says, too, that the Son of Man should be lifted up for all to see so the world might be saved and he who believes in him might enjoy eternal life.

Employee Giving Campaign

DID YOU KNOW - the House of Charity is a donor choice for many employee giving campaigns?

Many businesses will begin their Employee Giving Campaigns this month and continue to solicit donations through the fall months. Employee Giving/United Way campaigns give us an opportunity to direct our donations to the charities that best represents our beliefs, interests and social concerns.

Ask your employer for a pledge card and be sure to:

- Designate the House of Charity in the Donor Choice Section
- If the agency requests a code for your donor choice...these codes may be found on the Employee Giving Poster hanging in the Parish Office
- Ask to be acknowledged! This ensures our parish will receive credit toward our House of Charity goal.

Your donation to our House of Charity helps to build, support and maintain many programs, ministries and services throughout our parishes and communities. These programs save lives and build futures. Thank you so much for your past, present and future support of our House of Charity fundraising campaign.

SPECIAL NOTICE REGARDING THE 2014 HOUSE OF CHARITY
