MASSES INTENTIONS

READINGS FOR THIS SUNDAY

TWENTY- EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading: Isaiah 25:6-10a

This passage describes the new Jerusalem as a heavenly banquet on the mountain with the Lord God wiping away all tears.

Second Reading: Philippians 4:12-14, 19-20

In simple, direct words, Paul thanks the Philippians for alleviating his hardships. He stresses, though, that he is as accustomed to poverty as to abundance and finds all his strength in Christ.

Gospel: Matthew 22:1-14

Once more speaking to the chief priests and the elders, Jesus relates the parable of the wedding banquet. A King, preparing a wedding banquet for his son, summons all the invited guests. When, after several invitations, no guests arrive, the King commands his servants to "go out into the byroads and invite anyone you come upon." Again, Jesus warns the elders, "the invited are many, the elect are few."

2014-15
Welcome St. Simon Stock Travelers!

You are cordially invited to tour with us for the next few months as we explore.....

Who's WHO?! and What's WHAT?!!

Our glorious planet is chock full of amazing people, places and things!
Come join us for all or any of the following tours!
Discover WHO you will meet and WHAT you will find!

FALL TOURS 2014

End 68 Hours of Hunger Project....

is a private, not-for-profit, effort to confront the approximately 68 hours of hunger that some young school children experience between the free lunch they receive in school on Friday afternoon and the free breakfast they receive in school on Monday morning.

So....WHAT is this TOUR about? It's about helping to put nourishing food in the little hands of elementary school children to get them through the weekend. Volunteers purchase the food, pack the bags and deliver them to the offices of the selected elementary schools. From there, a school employee delivers the food to the classrooms of the individual participating students. The students take the food home on Friday afternoon.

So....WHO is needed for this TOUR? A crew of VOLUNTEERS! We need you to help us plan the program so children never have a "fear of hunger." Claire Bloom is the amazing founder of the program (check out Claire's interview on NBC news or check out the website: www.end68hoursofhunger.org )

The great news is that this program provides initial funds for us to get started! It is not a difficult program to establish. It will simply take time and volunteers. Jesus teaches that whenever we care for the poor and vulnerable, we care for him....Please sign up for this TOUR at one of the meetings listed below:

*If interested, we will meet on Tuesday, November 4 at 1:00pm OR 7:00pm in the PMC.
(You can choose either meeting....both will have same content.)*

The Matthew 25 Project.....

The gospel of Matthew 25 conveys a clear message from Jesus that charity and justice is at the heart of our faith: "I was hungry and you gave me food, thirsty and you gave me drink, ill and you comforted me..."

So....WHAT will you do on this TOUR?
Our parish is partnering with the Diocesan Office of Life and Justice to offer an opportunity for us to respond to the needs of those who are "ill."

So....WHO will you meet on this TOUR?
Rosemarie Manes, a licensed marriage and family therapist, who will present the topic: The Deafening Silence: The Impact and Healing for Individuals and Families from Suicide of a Loved One. Rosemarie's presentation is based on her experience of her father's suicide. Please join us.

*WED, November 12 at 9:30am OR 7:00pm in the Parish Meeting Center*

Welcome St. Simon Stock Travelers!

STEWARDSHIP

UPCOMING EVENTS

Steward's Needs are Provided

"My God will fully supply whatever you need..."
PHILIPPIANS 419A

God really does provide for those that are grateful and generous. This is very difficult for people that don't live a Stewardship lifestyle to believe. People are skeptical and say it's just coincidence. If you are skeptical, try living a stewardship lifestyle for just one month – be generous with your gifts of time, talent and treasure and see how God provides for your needs.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

On October 19, our Diocese will take up a second collection for missionaries from around the world, who through their witness to Christ, provide practical help to the poor and allow them to experience God's love and mercy, His hope and peace. Your financial help on World Mission Sunday, offered in the collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, will support the 1,150 young mission dioceses and communities who await the "Good News" of Jesus as their saving hope. Please be as generous as your means allow in next week's second collection.

SPECIAL EBOLA COLLECTION

At the request of Bishop Dennis Sullivan, our parish will take up a collection on October 25th and 26th to assist the Hospitaller Order of St. John of God who have been treating Ebola victims in Liberia and Sierra Leone. Several brothers and co-workers have died treating these patients. According to one of the Brothers, "They need all the support we can give them to complete the isolation area and to supply specific hospital materials – gloves, masks, goggles, etc – as well as disinfectants to control and treat the Ebola virus... There is no vaccine and no specific effective treatment for this disease, and treatments can only deal with the symptoms, which makes it a matter of life and death to introduce preventive measures and prevent contagion spreading to family members and the health care personnel treating the sick," he said. Bishop Sullivan requests that we offer our prayers as well for those suffering from Ebola and for those who are caring for them.

"I won't describe what I look like. Whatever you're thinking, it's probably worse."

So begins Wonder, a debut novel by R. J. Palacio.

Wonder offers a first person perspective of a boy with a severe facial deformity who enters a mainstream school for the first time. It is an uplifting story with the power to open eyes and hearts to what it's like to be singled out for a difference you can't control. It reached #1 on the NY Times Bestsellers List (for ages 8 - 12) and has stayed there for 96 weeks.

The novel, which offers a subtle lesson on the meanings and possibilities of kindness, was required reading for our Junior High students. To further reinforce its important message, OLMC invited a real life Wonder boy, Trevor, and his parents, to speak to our Junior High students.

Students created special t-shirts to welcome Trevor.

During the special assembly, Trevor and his parents answered questions from OLMC students, their parents, and other family members who attended.

This assembly had a profound and sincere impact on the OLMC community. Our Lady of Mt. Carmel sincerely thanks Trevor and his parents for taking the time to share their journey.
