A FRESH PERSPECTIVE ON THE SUNDAY READINGS
HIS WORD TODAY by Rev. William J. Reilly

Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord
March 29, 2015

“The Lord God is my help, therefore I am not disgraced; I have set my face like flint, knowing that I shall not be put to shame.’... ‘My God, my God, why have you abandoned me... But you O Lord, be not far from me; O my help, hasten to aid me’... Christ became obedient unto death, even death on a cross...”

The events of this week are so well known. We enter the holy city with our palms. We sit at the table for the Passover meal. Puzzled as Jesus humbly washes feet, we receive our mandate to serve others.

3pm. CHRISM MASS 2015

We leave for the Garden of Olives and are asked to pray, if only for an hour. Jesus is taken, arrested like a common criminal, unjustly tried and condemned. Savagely led through the streets, He is hoisted upon a cross and left to die. With Mary and John we remain faithful at the foot of the cross. Good Friday sadness will lead to Easter joy.

The events of Holy Week continue today. Many are walking the Via Dolorosa as refugees, asylees, the terminally ill, homeless and unemployed. The passion continues to be played out where others, like Christ, seek our compassion and support.

The Lord does not abandon them, as the psalm states, when we respond to their need.

The Meaning of the Cross

What has the Cross left in each one of us? You see, it gives us a treasure that no one else can give: the certainty of the faithful love which God has for us. A love so great that it enters into our sin and forgives it, enters into our suffering and gives us the strength to bear it. It is a love which enters into death to conquer it and to save us.

Pope Francis, WORLD YOUTH DAY 2013

Lord, you ask us to take up our cross and follow you. To do that, we must first understand what your cross means for us. Love is certain to involve suffering, and your suffering for us is the highest expression of love. As we begin Holy Week, may we keep our eyes on the cross and on your love for us. Amen.

(Living Lent with Passion by Pope Francis)

Liturgical Art and Environment

Have you wondered why we have an old antique trunk centered at the altar? Since November when we celebrated our fifth anniversary as St. Simon Stock Parish, we have centered at the altar an antique trunk. Trunks signify history, mystery, traditions and treasures.

For us at St. Simon Stock Parish it is all of these. This same trunk adorned our worship space in 2009-2010, the first year of our new parish. We brought it back and have centered it in our liturgical celebrations.

These are the treasures, traditions and mystery of our faith journey so far!

November – the fruits of the harvest
 December – the time of anticipation- Veni Emmanuel- Come Lord Jesus
 Christmas Time – the arrival of the Infant King-Wonder Counselor
 January/February – the treasures of our faith; the Gospels, Roman Missal; hymnal; Prayers and scriptures
 February/March/April/May - Ash Wednesday and throughout the Easter Season – Repent and Follow Me into New Birth-Alleluia!
 Share this with your family, your children and your friends. What a wonderful visual image!

Attention: Eucharistic Ministers to Rehab & Nursing Home

If you have a pyx that belongs to our church, please return it to the sacristy closet until the weekend you are on call. Sometimes they are needed during the week. Thank you!

A Prayer for the World Meeting of Families

God and Father of us all, in Jesus, your Son and our Savior, you have made us your sons and daughters in the family of the Church.

May your grace and love help our families in every part of the world be united to one another in fidelity to the Gospel.

May the example of the Holy Family, with the aid of your Holy Spirit, guide all families, especially those most troubled, to be homes of communion and prayer to always seek your truth and live in your love.

Through Christ our Lord, Amen.

Jesus, Mary and Joseph, Pray for us!
