

EASTER CELEBRATION 2016

*“But Peter got up and ran to the tomb, bent down, and saw the burial cloths alone; then he went home amazed at what had happened.
Luke 24:12*

On Easter morning, the disciples were terrified. They were heartbroken too – aching from the loss of their friend and crushed that God had let them down. When they heard that Jesus’ body was not in the tomb, they were stunned. They didn’t know what to think. Everything would become clear when the risen Christ appeared to them. But on this day, they could only wonder and hold their breath, not knowing what God would do next. We don’t know what God will do next either. We can only wait in joy and hope for whatever is yet to come!

Risen Lord, open my heart to whatever you have in store for all of us!

READINGS

MASSES INTENTIONS

READINGS FOR THIS SUNDAY EASTER SUNDAY OF THE RESURRECTION OF THE LORD

First Reading: Acts 10:34a, 37-43

Peter discusses Jesus' life of preaching and healing. Jesus was crucified, and then he rose up and was seen by his chosen witnesses. Peter also mentions the importance of all the disciples bearing witness to what they saw, so that many people would believe in Jesus, and have their sins forgiven through him.

Second Reading: Colossians 3:1-4

Paul asserts that we must pay attention to higher realms rather than earthly concerns. Our life is not yet completely known to us, until Christ appears and we are raised to glory in him.

Gospel: John 20:1-9

When Mary Magdalene discovered Jesus' tomb was open, she told Simon Peter and another disciple. They ran to the tomb and Peter went inside. He found the burial wrappings on the ground, with the head covering separate from the rest. The other disciple came in and they believed what they saw, although until then they had not understood the Scripture's message of Jesus' resurrection.

Daily Readings

Monday	Acts 2:14, 22-33; Mt 28:8-15
Tuesday	Acts 2:36-41; Jn 20:11-18

From Archbishop Joseph E. Kurtz, President of the USCCB

Today the people of God must speak up for our brothers and sisters facing genocide in the Middle East. I urge every Catholic to sign the petition at www.stopthechristiangenocide.org. As people of faith, we must convince the United States Department of state to include Christians in any formal declaration of genocide

For months, the Catholic Church has been a voice for Christians and other religious minorities facing the evil of deadly persecution. Now, the State Department is expected to make a decision within days. A resolution, H. Con. Res. 75, is also gaining bipartisan support in Congress. Please make sure your name is added to the witness. The very future of the ancient Christian presence in the Middle East is at stake.
